Students of the College of Hawaii ,-advertisement. will give the first performance of "The Revolving Wedge" at the as the result of swallowing a big dose Charles R. Bishop Hall, Punahou, to of alcohol, mistaking it for medicine. night at a quarter past eight o'clock. The play is a football romance in one act and deals with the great Thanks- afternoon in the guild room at St. giving football game of '96 between Andrew's. Harvard and the University of Pennsylvania. The scene is laid in Cambridge at the home of Mr. Martin. The plot is very clever and well worked out. Mr. Martin is an accentric old gentleman, who believes in the oldfashioned observance of Thanksgiving, the family dinner. His son, Bob, is a Harvard man and plays half-back on the Harvard football team. He wishes to have his family present at the big game on Thanksziving Day, but Mr. Martin is strongly opposed to this as it would interfere with Thanksgiving dinner which he is set on having. The plot of "The Revolving Wedge" hinges upon these tw osituations and involves many interesting and amusing incidents.

Before the raising of the curtain the Boy's glee ciub of Punahou will entertain with several selections. The cast of characters for "The Revolving Wedge" in order of entrance is
